On Sunday, October 25th, members of the Huntington Manor FD Junior Firefighters joined with Post 1244 in a fall clean up of the Long Swamp Cemetery on Barkers Lane in Huntington Station.

The historic cemetery is the final resting place of three Huntington Militiamen: Sgt. John Carll, Pvt. Scudder Carll and Pvt. Joseph Ireland, all members of Col. Josiah Smith's 1st Regiment, Suffolk County Minutemen.

The long-neglected cemetery was adopted by Greenlawn Post 1244 in 2012 after Commander Bob Santo noticed it while on a walk in 2011. It was overgrown and littered with trash. Most of the grave stones had been damaged and toppled.

Designated as a Historic Cemetery by the Town of Huntington, the cemetery contains 55 graves, although, sadly, only four grave markers are still standing. These mark the graves of three patriots and veterans of the American Revolution: John Carll, Scudder Carll and Joseph Ireland. They all served in the 1st Regiment of Minute Men, Huntington Militia, under Col. Josiah Smith.

The fourth gravestone is for Sarah, the wife of Robert Jarvis. She died in November, 1780 at the age of 39. She is the daughter of another one of our American Revolutionary Patriots.

Many thanks to all and especially to all our young volunteers from the Huntington Manor Fire Department.

Boys State and Girls State 2021

In all the years that we have been doing the Boy's and Girl's State program this is by far going to be the most challenging due to the Covid-19 virus and all the related restrictions that have been implemented in an effort to keep everyone healthy.

When we first started in 2009, we were only working with one high school (Harborfields) and sending two students, and our limiting factor was funding. Slowly, with community support, we were able to generate the resources to send additional students.

By 2012, we were able to send five students. Then when we decided to expand the program to include students from additional local high schools, the challenge was to both develop a level of interest and a level of trust with the school's administrations.

2013 brought us students from Half Hollow Hills and Commack. In 2014, we had students from Whitman, and had sent our first girls to Girl's State. By 2017, we began sending students from Huntington. Over the years, we have been able to offer this great learning opportunity to well over 100 very qualified high school juniors. We sent 22 students to Brockport and Morrisville in 2019, and had 24 students scheduled to attend the 2020 program. The students have come from Harborfields, Whitman, Huntington, Commack, Half Hollow Hills, St. Anthony's, Chaminade and Kellenberg high schools.

Now that we have secured the interest level from the schools and the current funding, this brand new obstacle has been thrown onto our path of success. In 2020, the correct decision was made that brought the program to a temporary screeching halt due to the virus. While we are in the midst of the virus's second wave, we are trying to get the mechanics up and running, once again, in a safe and healthy fashion. We hope the virus will soon be under control and we will be able to send the students off to the SUNY campuses by the middle of 2021.

At this time, we are awaiting the names of potential candidates from the various schools. For everyone's health we must determine how to safely conduct the early January interview process. More to follow on this task in the next newsletter.

Allen Schwartz, was the first Editor and Publisher of The Greenlawn Bugle from March 2008 to December 2010.

In 2016, Allen and Leona Schwartz moved to Beacon Falls, Connecticut, where Allen became a member of American Legion Schaeffer -Fischer Post 25.

This year, although Allen and Leona remain in beautiful Beacon Falls, Allen has transferred back to Post 1244 as one of our many "remote" members.

Welcome home, Allen. We're glad to have you back!

Staying Connected @ A Distance

In my (very) younger years I did some oil painting and drawing. My wife Leona suggested that perhaps I would be interested in a watering coloring class that was given by a local artist in the library, here in Beacon Falls, CT.

Our small local library is located on the second floor of our Town Hall and noted for its excellent programs. So I signed up, and there I was in the Town Hall meeting room with a group of about 20 people ready to watercolor. Everything was provided for $3 and we had a great time, although my turtle picture looked somewhat odd!

I attached my creation to a text and sent it to my granddaughter, Hannah Rose, and she thought it was pretty 'cool'!

So we became a team of 2 and went monthly. I would pick Hannah up, we would go to dinner and off to art class...it was great! Everyone enjoyed the class, as the Artist gave us pointers, and we showed off our work, sometimes slightly embarrassed. We left smiling with our art to share with the world.

My garage front wall was soon decorated with our work and served as a neighborhood stopping point to see our creations...and then all things changed.

The library closed...classes were cancelled and 'social distancing' was the new normal.

As time went on I searched for a way to continue my own 'art classes', and perhaps my granddaughter's as well. I came across a great book on Amazon called 'Paint This Book'.

Allen Schwartz was formerly Post 1244 Adjutant and was the first editor and publisher of The Greenlawn Bugle. In 2016, Allen and Leona Schwartz moved to Beacon Falls, CT and Allen transferred to Schaeffer-Fisher Post 0025. Allen has recently transferred his membership back to Post 1244. We are glad to have him back and we welcome his journalistic contributions.

It had the paint, watercolor paper and fun lessons and painting exercises, all bound in a hardcover book.

I bought 2...one for Hannah and one for me. It is designed for kids and adults of all ages and really works. We'd do a lesson at a time on our own, then compare our work via FaceTime. In one session she remarked, 'Pa, you're not following the directions', and she was right. We were staying connected at a distance! The book is 72 pages with 48 of them watercolor paper.

Check the book out on Amazon; it has a lot of information...who knows, maybe we can have a Post Newsletter page of budding artist's work...both senior and junior?

I have attached a sample of our work...which one do you thing was done by the old guy?

Operation Enduring Care

Our Silent Heroes

2020 has been a year of many storms, discord and at times painful division. Through it all, we have been blessed with a steady group of contributing silent heroes. Each opportunity to give, or urgent request for assistance, has been met with a smile, and an immediate donation for needed supplies.

The big corporate donors have a tendency to get the headlines, but that is only to encourage other large groups to join us. Our silent contributors are why this collection has continued to assist our veterans in need. The steady stream of donations allows contributions to be readily acquired.

Every two weeks, a stream of needed hygiene items, snacks and warm gently used clothing is brought to our veterans. Often without fanfare, items are given directly to awaiting veterans.

Our collection's purpose is to show appreciation and compassion for those that served. The military formations from the past have begun to thin out over time. The footfalls of finely drilled servicemembers fade. The posture of our silvered servicemembers may not be as rigid. But all served with Honor, performed their Duty and honored our Country.

We seek not publicity or praise, but the opportunity to forge our legacy through enduring service. It is through the efforts of our silent heroes that our collection continues its enduring service.

Our silent heroes have contributed, supported and encouraged us. For all of our donors and silent heroes, I am eternally grateful. Our legacy of enduring care is written by your deeds.

Greenlawn Fire Department Juniors Collect for Operation Enduring Care

The Greenlawn FD Junior Firefighters have greatly supported our mission to provide comfort, care, and non-perishable food items to our veterans in need. Due to the additional challenges and hardships complicated by the COVID-19 Crisis, the needs of our veterans are amplified.

Led by Firefighter Marissa Moszczyc and EMT Lauren Silberstein, the Junior Firefighters with the collaboration of the teachers and staff of the John H. Glenn High School, contributed 500 items. The items consisted of non-perishable foods, hygiene and snacks. These were matched by "Operation Enduring Care" to fulfill immediate veteran needs. It is with great pride and appreciation on behalf of our veterans in need, that our gratitude is extended. Very well done!

Cost of Living Adjustments and Property Tax Exemptions

The Cost-of-Living Adjustment (COLA) is determined by the Social Security Administration and is based on the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) report of September 2020 inflation data.

For 2021, the increase was small - only 1.3%. This was due to low inflation and the impact of COVID-19 pandemic on the economy. The new 2021 VA disability rates will be effective December 1, 2020 and veterans should see the increase in their January, 2021 VA compensation payment.

The VA has not yet updated their pay charts reflecting the 2021 pay rates, however, I found a great website that has charts and explains the 2021 ratings. If you are interested in viewing the new pay rates and have internet access, visit:

<https://vaclaimsinsider.com/va-disability-rates-2021-explained/>

Over a half a million veterans are eligible for property tax exemptions in NY. The amount of the exemption varies depending upon the time of service but could be as much as 25% if you have served in a combat zone. Many local governments also offer a Cold War veteran's exemption of up to 15% for veterans who served on active duty between 1945 and 1991. The Town Assessor's Office is responsible for the administration and processing of property tax exemptions allowed under state and local laws. If you are a Huntington resident, Call (631) 351-3226 for more information. All Exemption applications must be filed on or before March 1st."

Wishing all of my fellow veterans special blessings for a wonderful, safe holiday and a New Year that brings you bright new beginnings!

Sincerely,

Michelle Martin

Military Exchange Online Shopping Privileges for Veterans

The Army Airforce Exchange System (AAFES) now provides all honorably discharged Veterans with a lifelong online military exchange shopping benefit. DOD regulations were changed to allow this access on Veterans Day 2017, but there is not a lot of awareness or information out there on this benefit. In addition, effective with the beginning of this year (CY 2020), DOD made an additional change, granting disabled veterans in-store shopping access for Exchanges and Commissaries. Hopefully, this will help those who need this information take fuller advantage of this new set of benefits that you have already earned through your service to our Nation.

First, some personal perspective/observations: As an Army Retiree, I have been using the Exchange (and Commissary) throughout—and after—my years in uniform. However, I never used the online option until the COVID-19 Pandemic. It's been 6 months now, and my wife and I are quite satisfied with the results. There 24/7/365 telephone customer service, and those folks at AAFES HQ (in Dallas) are very helpful—and patient!

The AAFES shopping for Veterans website:
shopmyexchange/vets.com

The shopmyexchange Customer Service Phone Number: (800) 527-2345

Another “fun fact”: the AAFES version of the Amazon Fulfillment Center is in Newport News, VA. However, if they don't have the item, you could be getting a box from as close as Joint Base Maguire/Dix in New Jersey, or Tinker AFB in Oklahoma (or, a few times, JB-Lewis/McChord in Washington State!).

How Military shopping benefits are determined: Federal law provides the framework for DOD regs on who can have military shopping privileges. Congress deems that the cost savings available through military shopping (lower prices, no sales tax), are classified as “non-monetary compensation” for military service.

Online Exchange shopping benefits include the some of the same attractive features that you would enjoy with on-base shopping, with some additional ones:

- Tax-free shopping
- Military-exclusive pricing in some cases, always highly competitive prices
- Members-only credit options
- Free shipping on orders over $49 or more
- Free shipping on any amount when you use your MILITARY STAR™ Card (The AAFES charge card, which Veterans can now obtain and use for Exchange shopping. However, it is not required for Exchange shopping).

Who is eligible for this benefit? Honorably discharged Veterans of all United States Armed Forces, including the Air Force, Army, Navy, Marines and Coast Guard as well as the Air Force Reserve, Army Reserve, Navy Reserve, Marine Corps Reserve, Coast Guard Reserve and National Guard may shop online with any of the military exchanges that offer online services. Remember, however, the online shopping benefit does not grant installation access.

Which Exchange systems provide the Veterans online shopping benefit? The Army & Air Force Exchange Service (AAFES) is by far the largest U.S. military retail system. Of course, its primary customers are intended to be U.S. Army and Air Force personnel. However, from the beginning of online military shopping services, AAFES has been the primary provider. They have the largest inventory by far.

The other Exchanges offer these services to varying degrees, but ALL Honorably discharged Veterans of all United States Armed Forces can use AAFES. The Navy Exchange (NEX) markets Veterans shopping as VOSB, the Veterans Online Shopping Benefit. Their online site: www.myNavyExchange.com.

The Coast Guard Exchange has also expanded online shopping privileges to all honorable discharged veterans. Of course, their system is comparatively small, and the Marine Exchange (MCX) is also limited in capabilities and inventory. Except for USMC uniform items, MCX personnel will generally guide you AAFES.

Conclusion: Some things never change: the prices AAFES online are just like shopping in the physical PX: many prices will be unbeatable, but in some cases you can do better. As always, it pays to shop other retail websites when you first start with AAFES. So, go online for AAFES or for the exchange for your branch of service, open an account, and give it a try. Happy shopping! It's a perk you earned!

A Season For Giving

L-R: PC Bob Santo, Joe Sledge and PC Dennis Madden

We always look forward to our visit to Joe Sledge at the Northport VA Medical Center each Holiday Season. bringing gifts from our post members to those veterans and their families who are in need.

This year, however, the need was especially great, so in lieu of gifts, we were asked to provide gift cards from big-box stores so that the families could use our assistance for food, clothing and toys as they needed.

We were greeted, as always by Joe (Santa) Sledge waiting for us at the entrance to Bldg. 200.

Our Operation Enduring Care program has been fortunate to have received numerous donations of food from our many community partners and individuals.

This year, we were proud to donate a van-load of non-perishable food to Operation Hope, a program of Island Harvest, dedicated to providing food for Long Island's veterans and their families in need.

All of our local food banks have been under a great deal of stress due to joblessness related to the pandemic. If you can give - please do!

OEC's Al Statton and Operation Hope's John Maher

Santa's Helpers L-R: Bob Santo, Steve Scinta and Dennis Madden at Angels For Warriors

Angels For Warriors has been the recipient of the Mark Gawesky Toy Drive's donated toys and funds for a number of years. The local charity provides pro and low bono legal help for veterans. They also help veterans and families in any kind of need.

This year, Angels For Warriors will be bringing Post 1244's donated toys to Services For The Underserved (S:SUS), Northport VAMC and Long Island Cares. We also provided AFW with a supply of Walmart gift cards to assist those veterans who come to them for assistance.

The Greenlawn Bugle Earns Another First Prize

We are proud to announce that our Post 1244 quarterly newsletter, The Greenlawn Bugle, has garnered a first prize award for posts of 249 members or less. The award was given by the American Legion Media Alliance, the successor organization to the National American Legion Press Association.

We owe thanks to all who have contributed in any way to the success of our newsletter (now in its 14th year). Our writers, photographers, advertisers, critics and everyone who provide suggestions and feedback continue to fine tune this enterprise of ours.

We wish to extend a very special thanks to all who make our American Legion Post worthy of writing about!

The Greenlawn Bugle is looking for a few volunteers

Our award-winning newsletter could use some part time help. We are looking for a member or two to join the team and spend a small amount of time assisting in some of the functions of running this newsletter.

If you have a talent for writing, we can always use articles which would be of interest to our principal audience – your fellow veterans.

First person articles about your experiences in the military are always welcome. If your writing skills are a bit rusty, we will carefully edit your work and make it as perfect as possible.

When we begin engaging in activities again next year, someone who is good with a camera would be always appreciated.

Even if you just have some ideas we might be able to use we want to hear from you!

Please contact me at 516-458-7881 or bobsanto2@Verizon.net.

Many thanks,

Bob Santo

Please also thank our many local elected officials who also sponsor the Bugle, whenever you see them.

We have recently added a new volunteer to our staff, Legionnaire Walter Rabe, who will be in charge of soliciting new ads, encouraging the renewal of existing ads, and keeping it all organized. Thank you, Walter, for your help!

Post 1244 American Legion Auxiliary to Disband

We regret to announce that American Legion Auxiliary Unit 1244 will be discontinuing operations.

It has become impossible for the unit to continue due to the pressures of work, family, and health issues on the leadership of the unit.

There being no one to step in to take on the responsibilities of the unit it was decided that it would be best to close down.

We wish to thank all who have supported our Auxiliary unit since their charter was granted to it in 2009 under the leadership of the late Fran Hubbs.

Our Auxiliary accomplished a great deal. Their fundraisers and events have contributed to a great many causes of benefit to our veterans and their families.

We are grateful to them for all they have accomplished.

If there are any eligible women (or men) who would be willing to step up to save this Auxiliary unit, please contact Post Commander Donna Boyle at 631-942-2156 or by email at 39dpip@gmail.com

Those members who paid their 2020-2021 dues will continue their membership until June 30, 2021.

Post 1244's "Veterans Weekly Bulletin"

One of the challenges we face is communicating important and timely information to our over 200 members.

With all that we do in this area, we are one of the very best Legion Posts in the U.S. at using all forms of media to reach our members.

Over the past 7 years, we have continued to improve our "Veterans Weekly Bulletin" in response to the suggestions of our faithful readers.

We do try to limit it to once a week, unless there is an important special announcement.

If you would like to receive this source of information tailored to Post 1244 veterans and their families, please let me know at bobsanto@verizon.net. Or call 516-458-7881.

Happy Holidays to all!

December is here and almost the end of another year. This month, the Riders pulled out their long long sleeves and leather jackets. This was a hard year for all of us, but 2021 has no choice but to be better.

This year our Thanksgiving Run was a great day bringing smiles to many. We still made a lot of noise, woke up a few people, but always tried to keep a 6 motorcycle distance between us - emphasis on tried!! We had our Veterans Day Fundraiser followed by a short ceremony. This year, the Pearl Harbor Day Ceremony was also reduced in attendance. We all can Never Forget the past. If it wasn't for those heroes' today would be so very different.

The Riders would like to wish everyone a Happy and Safe Holiday Season!

Vice Commander's Call to Members: "What's In Your Wallet?"

As we come to the end of another year, it bears reminding that we are, after all, a membership organization.

Nothing we have accomplished as a national organization or as a local post could have happened without the dedication of all our paying members.

Our membership is on a fiscal year basis. 2021 dues became payable beginning July 1, 2020. Most of our members pay their dues in the weeks after July 1. However, after many renewal notices, some have still failed to do so.

This puts an undue burden on those of us who are responsible to keep up our membership. If there are financial reasons for your delay, we ask that you just let us know.

On the right is the image of a 2021 paid membership card. Please notice the date: 2021.

If you are carrying a membership card with the date 2020, you are about to be in arrears.

Please don't put it off any longer.

We want you to belong!

“Seasons Greetings and Happy Holidays” or “Merry Christmas and Happy New Year” with a hug or handshake would be how you were greeted in a typical year but this has not been a typical year.

So we smile behind our masks and wave at each other across rooms and from our cars. We visit by phone or Zoom instead of sharing meals or parties. We are unable to celebrate with each other this year but I hope everyone has been able to stay healthy.

The rollout of the vaccine, heavily supported by the Army appears to be going well and might let Americans have a more normal 2021.

A few major changes have occurred within the post the last few months, among them are that Charlie Tritto has transferred to another post. Please join me and wish Charlie, our Chaplain, good luck and best wishes in the future in his new post. John Carr, our Assistant Chaplain has stepped up and is now Post Chaplain. Please join me and welcome him.

An important function the post performs is the support of local charities and veterans. If you need assistance please reach out. The post has established a procedure to ensure we meet the federal requirements for charities. No one wants to break any laws or put the post in a bad light. That said, the main thing is if you need help please reach out and we will try.

Our assistance will require some paperwork but to quote the motto of an Engineer Battalion I was a member of: “Essayons”. (Let us try.)

Our service officer, Michelle Martin has not let me down when have I asked for her assistance. She has knowledge of an amazing network of support for Veterans.
